

1812 Town of Porter

The Town of Porter was incorporated in 1812 and was named for Judge Augustus Porter, who lived in the town, but did not reside here. The Porter Hotel Restaurant of Youngstown-Lockport Road intersection burned in the

Please Do Not Write Within This Box — For Post Office Use Only

© 2012
Town of Porter

1812 Town of Porter 2012

B. D. Davis constructed this Main Street building in the Village of Youngstown c. 1854, which operated as a general store by the Davis and Haskell families well into the 20th century. Today, the Davis Block includes apartments and a barbershop.

Photograph Courtesy

Please Do Not Write Within This Box — For Post Office Use Only

© 2012
Town of Porter